Confession and Profession.

Were I to make confession full, my dear, of guiltiness I hide from you, it would destroy your faith in me, I fear, And all your trusting love undo.

You hold me noble, generous, true and kind, And graven on your own pure heart See there the attributes you faint would find In him who plays a lover's part.

Alas! their trappings from them torn, Our idols oft show feet of clay! How rare the creature fair to fancy born, Endure cold Reason's sterner sway!

I am not kind, but cast in selfish mold— 'Tis strange you have not found it out— For that I give a task of you ten-fold, And oft default the tenth I owe.

The laurel wreath with which you crown my head Thereon sets withered, as a rose Cast on the sands there lies, unfragrant, dead, The sport of every wind that blows!

Then what is left that I may justly claim Of all the good in me you see— What one redeeming trait that I can name That may require your love for me?

Just one! For those I lack may it atone When whispered low to you— If I be false in all things else, my own, To her I love I'm true—I'm true!

E. D. A.

Des Arc Items.

Piedmont Banner: "In the removal of Bro. Strader, our beloved Superintendent, we not only lose an efficient officer, but our church an honored member and our town a useful citizen, whose place can not be filled. Our loss is Des Arc's gain."

Mr. Strader, the cashier of our bank, moved in from Piedmont last week. He will be of great help to us in our church work, and while Piedmont loses a good man we have gained one. I wish we had several more such men.

Judge Smith went to Poplar Bluff last Friday, but the balance of the county court did not show up. They were to go down and examine an adding machine, and if satisfactory were to buy one. It must be a good thing, and something every county should have.

A man arrived to-day from the lead district to run the diamond drill. It starts to-day.

Mr. Jas. Lovelace went to the hospital in St. Louis Tuesday. She has been sick quite a while.

John, William and Bud Stevenson went to the city Monday. Nathan Sutton and Dick Knight also went. Each of them will buy a new saw.

I mentioned last week that O. C. Lucy bought the Gad's Hill property. He has since sold it to Mr. Copley.

It is reported that Dr. Fred Farr has bought out Gus Funk, at Annapolis, and will move into the Clarkson house. Gus will move to Ellington.

Our old friend, Syl. Kitchell, of Annapolis, is quite sick at present. There is more sickness around Des Arc than ever known before.

The doctors are kept busy. Mrs. Minnie Farr, visited Piedmont last week.

Mr. Strader gave our Sunday school a nice little talk Sunday. He leads the bible class. Our Sunday school attendance last Sunday was forty-four. They will have an Easter service on Easter Sunday.

Some of our boys took on a little too much whiskey and cider Saturday and several were arrested. The boys here are not allowed to jump trains any more. ISAAC.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at Arcadia Valley Drug Co. Price 50 cents.

Eczema is Now Curable

ZEMO, a scientific preparation for external use. Stops itching instantly and destroys the germs that cause skin diseases. Eczema quickly yields and is permanently cured by this remarkable medicine. All Druggists. Write for sample. E. W. Rose Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Miller has a car load of raw bone fertilizer. He sells cheap. Also, acorn flour, bran, mixed feed, ship-stuff and corn. Everything you need is at Arcadia Valley Store.

FOR SALE—Two brood mares, ten years old. Inquire of Dr. W. J. Smith at Sanitarium. Also, two cottages to rent.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Rupp. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice, I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and he soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

A Well Known Fact

That no skin disease, whether from internal or external origin, can long withstand the two powerful germicides, ZEMO and ZEMOTONE, they destroy the germs that cause the disease, they always cure. Write for sample. E. W. Rose Med. Co., St. Louis. All Druggists sell it. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Mrs. Paulus recently purchased a new buggy.

I notice that the law compelling all districts to run an eight months' school, where a forty cent levy will maintain such school, has been signed by Gov. Folk.

Just what disposition was done with the compulsory school law is not yet known to me. I am not a strong advocate of compulsory education.

J. H. Price has abandoned the idea of moving to Flat River.

An effort is being made to organize a Yeoman Lodge in town.

We often wonder what has become of the California-Missouri Mining Development Company. Will they let their options in this valley expire by limitation, before doing any prospecting?

J. C. Horn entertained his brother-in-law from Carbondale, Illinois, last week.

The Methodist people have recently closed a two weeks' meeting.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizzmore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say, take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory, 25c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

In Memoriam.

Died—On January 9, 1907, at Tom Sauk, Mo., Mrs. Mary Buckner, aged 78 years and 9 days.

Three sons, a daughter and several grandchildren and many friends mourn her demise. She made her home with her daughter, Mrs. George Sutherland, in Arcadia, but when she realized her feeble and declining condition she pleaded to be taken to the country, the scene where many duties of pain and pleasure with those near and dear to her were enacted. She was taken to the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Elzonia Parker, where she was well cared for and visited by all of her children.

We owe our heartfelt thanks and prayers to the kind people of that neighborhood, who administered to our dear mother during her last illness. She professed a hope in Christ in her early womanhood and joined the United Baptist church. She was a true and faithful member till death claimed her as a willing victim—so much did she long to be freed from her pain and sorrow and enter into peaceful rest.

THE DAUGHTER.

Miller, at Arcadia, will sell for cash, Golden Sheaf flour, the best on earth, for $2 per hundred; Bran per hundred, $1.15; Shorts per hundred, $1.20; Corn chops, $1.15; Cornmeal, 70c per bushel.

Mary—Dark circles under the eyes indicate a sluggish circulation, torpid liver and kidneys. Exercise and Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and beautiful. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Notice to Teachers.

The next regular examination of teachers will be held in the public school building, Arcadia, Mo., Friday and Saturday, March 22 and 23, 1907. The examinations will begin at 8:00 A. M. and close at 6:00 P. M. Order of subjects:

First Day—Geography, Grammar, Algebra, Orthography, Arithmetic, Language and Literature.

Second Day—Reading, Civil Government, Science, U. S. History, Physiology, Pedagogy and Advanced History.

All teachers, who have not certificates, and those wishing to raise the grade of their certificates from a third grade to a second, or a second grade to a first, should take these examinations. You cannot afford to teach on a third grade certificate, and if you hold a first, this is the last examination until the last of June, and you cannot enter into contract to teach without a certificate in full force.

JNO. T. PATTERSON, Com'r of Schools.

Facts About the Grip.

The grip is highly infectious. It stimulates other diseases. The grip picks out the weak points of a person's constitution. The grip in itself is by no means a mortal disease.

The victims of the grip are adults who perish from pneumonia or bronchitis, and the aged who sink from heart exhaustion.

Children, while prone to the disease, enjoy a comparative immunity from its complications and dangers.

In adults, the attack as a rule comes on with lightninglike speed. A person apparently in perfect health is suddenly overcome by a feeling of discomfort and depression.

He "runs" at the nose; He feels chilly; His head aches; His eyes pain him.

What to do—go to bed at once; take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and quinine as directed for influenza.

Do this and the grip is soon shorn of its terrors. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.
